Story: Color graphics with markers, colored pencils, chalks, etc. Use flannel, or laminate and cut out and place magnets on back of graphics, etc. Use the "Parental Explanation" to elaborate on each card as it is presented. Be familiar with the information on the "Parental Explanation" sheet.

"A Haunting We Will Go" Game: Preparation - Color the two game board sheets. Line sheets up side by side so that the numbered spaces go from #1 to #15. Tape together on the back side of the game board sheets. Color as desired and laminate. Laminate and cut out the game cards. You will need a die for the game and a game piece for each player. Place cards face down on the playing surface and have each player place his or her game piece on the "START" position.

Object - To be the first player to reach the finish.

Play - The youngest member of the family goes first. The player begins by rolling the die and moving the number of spaces indicated on the die. The player draws a card and reads the question aloud. The player then answers the question to the best of his ability. Parents will judge whether the question has been answered correctly. If the question is answered incorrectly, the player must move back one space. If the question is answered correctly, the player remains on that space until his next turn. Players cannot occupy the same space at one time. If a player lands on a space that is already occupied by an opposing player, he may send that player back to the "START" position. Be sure to discuss each question as a family and determine together what is best to do in each situation.

Parental Explanations

Card #1

Rules 1, 2, 3 and 5 are for avoiding tripping hazards. It is difficult enough to see where you are going in the dark without having to worry about costume hazards.

Rule #4 - By wearing a costume with bright colors, trick-or-treaters will more easily be seen by motorists. It is wise to choose a flame retardant costume in case a trick-or-treater comes in close contact with a lit pumpkin.

Card #2

It is important in this day and age that children know not to eat any of their candy before letting their parents inspect it. It is also a good idea to not let children eat anything that has been made at home unless you know who made the item.

Card #3

When Trick-or-Treating it is always best to stay on the sidewalks. Explain that if you must cross the street, it is safest to do so at the corners or better yet in crosswalks. It will be harder for a motorist to slow down in time if you choose to cross the street anywhere other than at corners and crosswalks. If there isn't a sidewalk, walk on the left side of the road facing traffic.

Card #4

Even though it may not match the costume, it is wise to wear comfortable shoes and double tie the shoelaces. This will help to prevent falls.

Card #5

Rule #1 - It is best to only go to homes that you are familiar with.

Rule #2 - By planning the entire route ahead of time, children can let their parents know exactly where they will be.

Rule #3 - Approaching houses that are well lit will help to prevent falls. Also, it signals that this home will accept Trick-or-Treaters. If the house is dark, one should not approach it.

Rule #4 - Trick-or-Treaters should never go in a back yard and should avoid cutting across a front yard. There may be hidden hazards that one might not see when crossing. Also it is being disrespectful to go onto other people's property.

Rule #5 - NEVER enter someone's home to accept candy. Only accept candy in the doorway.

Card #6

It is always best for small Trick-or-Treaters to be accompanied by an adult. If this is not possible, make sure they understand that they should never accept rides, even from people they are familiar with. By visiting well lit homes, Trick-or-Treaters can be seen from the street. This helps to prevent any incidents.

Card #7

Always be POLITE and respectful. Never do anything that would cause harm to someone else's property. Remember to always say Thank You!

Card #8

Always be PREPARED. If these items are available, it is a good idea to carry them in case of an emergency.

Words by Judy Checketts Hatch

Sing to the tune of "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star"

When Trick-or-Treating,
just remember this song
You'll have a great time and nothing will go wrong.

Wear a costume
that is seen at night
One that's well made,
that's colorful and bright.

Never eat candy
Mom and Dad haven't seen
Wait till you get home,
make sure it is clean.

Walk on the sidewalks
and not in the streets
The corner or crosswalk is the place for your feet.

Wear your best shoes,
you know, the comfortable ones
Tie the laces twice
so you don't fall on your buns.

Don't go to strange neighborhoods
that's asking for trouble
Never go inside or your trouble may double.

Beware of strangers
Don't get in one's car
Take an adult,
Safety first, be on your guard.

Mind your manners
Be respectful and kind
Always say Thank you
Your parents you should mind.

Be prepared
With a flashlight to see
Take along a phone
If Mom and Dad agree.

Follow these tips
To have a safe time
Happy Halloween
This is the end of our rhyme.
